Thousands of our fellow-citizens have received benefit from the above medicines when reduced to the last stage of disease, and many families of the first respectability have given public testimony of the astonishing cures performed with the above preparations.—The proprietors are well assured that a single trial of any article here enumerated, will convince the most prejudiced person of its utility.

Pamphlets, containing cases of cures, &c. may be had gratis at the above place of sale, sufficient to confirm our assertion. Were we inclined to publish all the certificates which are in our possession, we might fill a folio volume; but we never mention the names of any persons but those who are well known to be citizens of strict veracity, and not then without their approbation.

Those medicines have been made known for a number of years to the public, and nothing can speak more in their favour than the rapid sales—to detect counterfeits it is necessary to inform the public that they must be particular in applying as above, and observe that none can be genuine without the signature of Richard Lee & Son.

N. B. Each and every medicine above enumerated have got their directions, describing their mode of use in the most perfect manner.

John Johnson, vs.

John Fitzhugh and Lewis Neth.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a decree to record two deeds, the one executed by Lewis Neth to John Fitzhugh, the other a mortgage, and from Fitzhugh to the complainant, for 1000 acres of land, part of a tract called Addition to Eden's Paradise Regained, situate in Allegany county, and also for a sale of the land, or a foreclosure of the mortgage. The bill states, the defendant were seized in fee of the tract, and for the purpose of dividing the same mutual deeds were executed, the one to Fitzhugh without any fraudulent intention, has not been recorded within the time prescribed by law. The bill also states, to secure a sum of money due from Fitzhugh to the complainant he mortgaged the same to him; no part of the mortgage money has been paid, and Fitzhugh has left the state, and is without the process of the court. It is thereupon, this 18th day of March, 1808, by William Kilty, chancellor, on the motion of the complainant, ordered, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette three successive weeks before the 15th day of April next, to the end that the defendant, Fitzhugh, may have notice of this bill, and of the subject and object thereof, and may be warned to appear in court, on or before the 15th day of August next, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

FROM A LATE LONDON PAPER.

THE LITTLE CHIMNEY SWEEPER.

FOUNDED ON FACT.—BY MR. UPTON.

IT WAS a keen frosty morn, and the snow heavy falling;
When a child of misfortune was thus sadly calling,
"Sweep, sweep—I am cold and the snow very deep."
"O, pray take compassion on poor little sweep!"

The tears down his cheeks in large drops were fast rolling;
Unnoticed, un pity'd, by those by him strolling;
Who frequently warn'd him at distance to keep,
While he cry'd—"take compassion on poor little sweep!"

In vain he implor'd passing strangers for pity,
They smil'd at his plaints, and they banter'd his ditty;
Humanity's offspring as yet lay asleep,
Nor heard the sad wailings of poor little sweep!

At the step of a door, half froze and dejected
He sat down, and griev'd, to be shun'd and neglected;
When a kind hearted damsel by chance saw him weep,
And resolv'd to befriend, yes, the poor little sweep!

Unmindful of sweets, to a neighbour's she led him,
Warm'd his limbs by the fire and tenderly fed him;
And oh, what delight did his fair maiden reap,
When she found a lost brother, in poor little sweep!

With rapture she gaz'd on each black sooty feature,
And hugg'd to her bosom the foul smelling creature;
Who, fav'd by a sister, no longer need creep,
Thro' lanes, courts and alleys, a poor little sweep!
